Pursuant to a legislative requirement, GAO reviewed the: (1) financial statements of the District of Columbia Highway Trust Fund for the 14-month period which ended September 30, 1996; (2) 5-year forecasted statements of the Funds expected conditions and operations; and (3) Funds internal controls and its compliance with the laws and regulations during that 14-month period. GAO noted that: (1) GAO was unable to give an opinion on the financial statements of the Fund because the lack of adequate documentation limited the scope of its work; (2) specifically, the District did not provide evidence for 3.7 million (36 percent of the 10.3 million) in capital appropriated expenditures and the related liability to the Capital Operating account, thus the financial statements may be unreliable; (3) material weaknesses in internal controls resulted in ineffective controls over: (a) safeguarding assets, specifically revenue cash receipts and the related accounts receivable, from material loss; and (b) assuring that there were no material misstatements in amounts reported in the financial statements, specifically capital appropriated expenditures, the liability to the Capital Operating account, and revenue; (4)...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
