Niven Dallas, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Man without Love is just about that. This story could have easily been about a woman without love, but I only knew about Bill Gump. and he was a bloke. A human being can experience Joy and maybe a Surprise at finding love ; then again a person can experience Sadness, Anger, and Fear at the thought of losing, or. never finding love. I have since discovered this love business is an exceedingly serious subject indeed. History has provided us with many examples of how love has influenced and changed a person s normal balanced state of mind. Wars bitterly fought, and Kingdoms given away, with many a murder committed in the name of love. Yes I do fully understand that this is indeed a tricky subject for a simple business man like me to write about. but then again, I felt that I must write this particular moving true story while I still have most of the details in my mind. Just whom do you turn to for guidance and advice on such a tricky subject as this. that s right, you re own loved one. the wife. Problems surfaced early, especially after advising my lady that I was going to write a love story about one of our ex-employees, a motor mechanic named Bill Gump. My lovely wife Lesley delicately drove the enormous challenge and complexity of the proposed task home to me. Lesley demanded to know what qualifications I had to write about Love, a subject she considered I knew absolutely nothing about. this was shattering news. I gently tried to explain that this was a sort of bloke-love problem; being a powerful...
