Lifelong Hoosier Richard Berry has added another volume to his books of poetry: Growing Up in North Madison: 1945 and On. If you know Richard personally, you may recognize yourself in these pages; if you ve never met him, you may feel like you re old friends with him after reading this compilation! All of his poems reflect his own personal experiences - stories of family, friends, co-workers, beloved pets, dreams, and life-changing events. Reading Richard s poems will provide a glimpse into one man s life - growing up in small-town America, doing his best to rear a family and be a friend to many. To varying degrees we each reflect on our lives and consider where we ve been and who has accompanied us on the journey. Sometimes it s a traumatic event or devastating loss that prompts such reflection, whereas some people are simply more introspective than others. Clearly, Richard has not been exempt from life s challenges. After undergoing several surgeries to remove a brain tumor, he s more aware than ever of our limited time on this planet, and he makes a concerted effort to focus on what really matters in life - spending time with the people we love and who love us.
