Summer 1991: In a little seaside town not too far away, a close group of friends are enjoying their endless aimless routine of work, drink, smoke, dance, repeat. But their ordered existence is about to be shattered forever as they're suddenly forced to face up to the destinies they have created for themselves. Dis-Affected is a love story lived at the edge of the desolate Tory dystopia. It's a memoir of friendship and vampirism with a sense of humour as black as the night that surrounds it.
