Yet as the war wages on, Kapitan finds himself embroiled in a desperate mission to rescue German POWs off the Isle of Wight. Suddenly he finds himself questioning the very foundations of his beliefs. Steeped in political intrigue and full of narrow misses, spanning some of the most tragic and influential events of the twentieth century - from post-war Berlin to the birth of Israel, from the SS to Mossad - Bill Fox's latest three-part thriller is not to be missed.
