The Paston Letters from time to time reflect the results of such a condition of affairs. John Paston s aunt, who owes a London merchant 20 marks, dare not adventure her money to be brought up to London for fear of robbing, which causeth her to beseech John Paston to pay the said money in discharging of the matter. 1 The fears of Margaret Paston for her husband s safety when he was away were only too well founded, and now and again her anxiety rises above her usual business-like news, and her relation of minor affairs. At the end of a letter of 1461, she writes, At the reverence of God, beware how you ride or go, for naughty and evil-disposed fellowships God for...
