

Winning the Math Wars: No Teacher Left Behind

By Martin L. Abbott, Duane Baker

University of Washington Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Winning the Math Wars: No Teacher Left Behind, Martin L. Abbott, Duane Baker, Washington State is about to enter a new phase of the 'math wars'. Since the late 1980s, the debate over how best to teach mathematics to schoolchildren has raged worldwide among educators, politicians, and parents. The stakes are high. To operate effectively in a global, twenty-first-century economy and polity, the United States must provide an education in mathematics that is both excellent and equitable. In this volume, four scholars at the Washington School Research Center at Seattle Pacific University present original research drawn from statistical studies of state educational data and from thousands of classroom observations carried out by the Baker Educational Research Group. They assess the current state of math education and review its history and development. The authors also provide a dispassionate review of the extensive international, national, and state literature. If America's goal of educational equity and excellence is to be achieved, then math teachers everywhere must be fully supported in developing the specific skills that are ideal for educating all students. The authors' discussion focuses on four principles for improving math teaching and...
