Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Captain s Bride: A Tale of the War As the dawn began to disperse the darkness from the earth, and the golden azure mounting the eastern skies, foretold the birth of a new day, the sharp jarring peal of a rifle cannon rent asunder the calm morning air, and echoed and re-echoed among the hills and swamps of the surrounding country. In a few minutes a cavalryman rushed in camp, his charger at his topmost speed. The bugler sounded the alarm, and after some hurried confusion, Captain Horton formed his company of Partizan Rangers in line of battle. The enemy are advancing! said the much excited courier, and as he spoke another jar from the rifle field-piece shook the earth beneath their feet; and was followed by a volley of small arms. Take sixteen men and support the picket, reconnoitre the enemy s strength, and hold in check at the creek as long as possible. When you are over-powered fall back to the mill bridge, where I will make arrangements to fight as long as our supply of ammunition lasts. These orders were given by Captain Horton to Lieutenant Emitson, and were immediately put in execution. This occurred a few days before the commencement of the memorable seven days battles around Richmond. All the troops, except enough to watch the movements of the enemy at his several points of occupation, were removed from the department and concentrated to take part in that sanguinary conflict to save the Capitol of the country.
