Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Journal of the American Oriental Society, 1919, Vol. 39 Since then the publication of Indian oral stories has been extensive and continuous to the present time. In 1914 there appeared the last volume of Mr. H. Parker's three-volume collection of Village Folk-Tales of Ceylon, the most important work yet published in this field, containing 266 stories and indicating parallels to many of those from other collections both oral and literary. We have now in printed form accessible to Occidental readers, in round numbers, 3000 stories from India and the adjacent countries of Ceylon, Tibet, Burma, and the Malay Peninsula. These run the gamut of folk-tale types, including myths, place and hero legends, fables, drolls, Marchen of all sorts, cumulative stories, and ballads. Altho the folk story material is not nearly exhausted, the number of tales reported is sufficiently large and representative to afford a working basis for the study of Indian folklore. Each new collection of tales that is published contains only a small amount of new material; the greater part repeats stories or...
