Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Juvenile Instructor, Vol. 30: Organ for Young Latter Day Saints The illustration represents one of the many forms of execution practiced among the savages of Africa - driving a spear down through the shoulder of the condemned man until it strikes a vital part, and death ensues as an end to the sufferings of the poor wretch. This mode of killing is quite humane compared with that in vogue among some of the native tribes of the dark continent, where torture of the most dreadful kind, and mutilation of the body in the most shocking manner, are the popular treatment for criminals. It is described by those who have witnessed it as swift and sure in its operation; and this we may well believe after a glance at the murderous-looking spear head whose point rests upon the victims shoulder, and at the powerful negro whose arms are uplifted to deliver the fatal thrust. That the ruder and more cruel methods of execution have been by the people pictured in the engraving abandoned in favor...
