

90 Ways to Keep Your Kids Drug Free

By Karen MILICI Palmiero

Outskirts Press, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . How do we prevent our kids from starting to use drugs? Effective drug prevention is an ongoing process that starts in the toddler years. This book is a guide to help you as this journey begins. The suggestions are age appropriate, but their goal will be to mold your child into a positive, self-assured teenager, one that will not be interested in drug use. Although methods of parenting vary from parent to parent, the common goal concerning drug abuse prevention should be to develop children with a strong sense of self, and a very high level of self-esteem. Children need to respect themselves and their loved ones. Children do not come with a manual, and all you can do is your best. Hopefully, the following tools to keep your kids drug free will help you on the journey of parenthood.
