Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing Group Inc, United States, 2000. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 170 x 107 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. She made a life with one man--but always loved another at The Summer House. Jean Stone captured readers imaginations with the graceful prose, vivid imagery and compassionately drawn characters ( Publishers Weekly ) of novels like Tides of the Heart and Places by the Sea. Now, in her latest novel, she reveals the public scandals of a family destined for political greatness--and the private secrets of a woman who traded her childhood dreams for a role she was born to play. As a young girl, Liz Adams always knew that her father, Boston power broker Will Adams, had big plans--dreams and schemes that would bring Liz s older brother all the way to the White House. But when fate deals the family a tragic blow, Will is forced to change his picture-perfect plans--and place the family s political future squarely on Liz s shoulders. Two decades later, Liz has married the man her father molded into the perfect presidential candidate. But weeks before the election, tragedy strikes again--and this time Liz can t hide the pain of a life lived by someone else s rules. Seeking refuge at her family s home on Martha s Vineyard, Liz finds only painful memories of the past--and the long-lost love she let slip away. Now, as her family s darkest hour looms, the woman torn between two men will finally discover what her heart has known all along.
