Inequalities arising not from the inequality of gifts that God has given but from the usurpations of men of the rights that God has given to all naturally are opposed to education. We must distinguish between the gifts of nature and the products of human industry. There is a distinction between what God through nature has given equally to all His children because He is the equal, impartial and loving Father of them all, and the private property which by God s own law is the proper reward of man s individual energy. God never designed that one of His children should exclude any other from the bounties He provided for all. The Creator has made ample provision for all men in the storehouse of nature and in the faculties and powers of man. There can be only One Landlord. He is the Lord our God. The earth He hath given to the children of men. It is a goodly habitation in which He has placed His family. And it is a monstrous usurpation of God s property to permit any man to call himself the absolute owner of any portion of it. Not the property even of the whole human family, God alone is the owner and he has simply given, as Jefferson tells us, the usufruct of these bounties to each succeeding generation of living men. Free the Earth from Landlordism Free the earth from the curse of landlordism by taking...
